

Victory Lane Holdings CV

Victory Lane Holdings, llc is a WA state firm that invests not only in real estate but in people. Entrepreneurs are the back bone of growth and stability. Principal, Victor J. Hernandez, CNE, CIPE, CPD professionally manages and consults in real estate and business sales industry.

There is no substitute for skill, polished by years of experience, and a thorough knowledge of the local market. And that's exactly what Seattle real estate managing broker Victor Hernandez at Victory Lane Brokerage offers to his clients. Victor's association with real estate goes far beyond helping clients achieve their goals; he's been active in designing, building, and protecting properties all over America for over 35 years. He makes it his business to know what the WA State real estate investors are doing at all times. Much to his clients' and associates' benefit, he freely shares this knowledge. Victor's passion for real estate is apparent to all who know him, but not all know that Victor graduated from New York University Real Estate Institute. No wonder his buyers and sellers attain beneficial terms in their real estate investments! When Victor does business with you, you know you are in good hands. Victor is a business person who takes the time to get acquainted and learn something of his clients hopes and dreams. Recognition for skill, expertise, and results in residential and commercial real estate. His passion for real estate law, development, and building sciences allows him to negotiate the very best in real estate transactions. His real estate practice is devoted primarily to the acquisition, development and sales of subject properties. Victor's work in commercial transactions centers on the formation of business entities, including corporations, partnerships and limited liability companies. Victor was raised in New York City and moved to Washington 17 years ago with his family.